

Keyton recognised at national industry awards

The recent National Retirement Living Awards on the Gold Coast saw Keyton take out well-deserved success in four key award areas.

The awards, which recognise the best-of-the-best in retirement living showcase outstanding team and individual contributions across the industry.

Congratulations to:

-  Peta Smith at Abervale Village and Windsor Park won the Award for Salesperson of the Year
-  Annabel Bone won Award for Future Retirement Living Leader
-  Dee Why Gardens, won the Award for Best Refurbishment for the Communal Area Upgrade
-  Burwood Terrace won the Peoples' Choice Award for the Best Retirement Village

The annual awards are the industry's most prestigious and recognise high achievement across all areas of our retirement living sector. To be nominated and win an award is an incredible achievement that further demonstrates the depth of talent and passion we have in our Keyton business.

Congratulations also to our other finalists:

Village Manager of the Year:

Sherman Brown at Burwood Terrace
Karri Ashford, Woodstock West Bunbury

Salesperson of the Year:

Glenys Watters, Parkland Villas Mandurah and Woodstock West

Sustainability in Retirement Living

Koorootang Court, Community Centre and Lodge refurbishment.